2. The city has grown somewhat during the past few years, particularly through the addition of residential areas, consisting of private homes, on the southwest, west, north, and northeast outskirts. Multiple-family dwellings have been built in various areas, primarily in the interior of the city. They are of various sizes, containing 8, 12, 24, 48, and 60 flats. The larger houses are, as a rule, four stories high. Following the entrance of the Soviets in 1944, a series of streets and squares received new names. The most important of these are:
